Judge Wood said that he would accept only those excuses which clearly came June within the statutes, and when he made good his announcement the band of petitioners melted very quickly. Five petitioners were flatly denied, nine were temporarily denied, six were granted. The other three petitioners did not bother to present their excuses.

Then began the attempt to fill seat No. made vacant by the release of Juror dole, on account of illness. The first eve talesmen had opinions that would require evidence to change—one of them said his opinion would last. Clarence Darrow objected to the method of Mr. Haw-ley's questioning the talesmen, claiming that by a certain manner of questioning it was hoped to pass the talesmen. Judge Wood overruled the objection. The court then adjourned until 9 o'clock

Beavers Defeat Eagles After Contest In Which There Was Plenty of Wrangling-Other News of Bessemer.

Bessemer, May 23 .- (Special.) - The moving picture craze has struck Bessemer with full force, and another show house is now under course of construction.

These places afford much real amuse ment and pleasure, particularly in the summer time, when one can for the small peril. The ideal refrigerator sum of 5 cents be entertained for half an hour. The one that is now being built will be situated on Nineteenth street, besweet, wholesome atmosphere; tween Second and Third avenues, in the location formerly occupied by Benton Bros. No expense is being spared in its construction, and when completed it will be one of the finest in the city. It will open for business the early part of next week, and will be under the management of William D. Taylor, Jr.

General Items.

An exciting game of baseball was played this afternoon at the Fourth Avenue park between the Eagles and Beavers. The game was one of the best of the season, but there was enough wrangling indulged in to satisfy even a Billy Smith. A great deal of friendly rivalry exists between the two teams, and every piece of ground was stoutly contested. The final score resulted in 3 to 0 in favor of the Beavers. Evidently Umpire Eldge did not have his weather eye with him, or else the hard rain just previous to the game caused him to feel blue. The pitching and fielding of Randle for the Beavers was the bright particular feature of the game, and

NINE NEGROES ARRESTED.

Are Charged With the Murder of Road Superintendent Owens.

Montgomery, May 23.-(Special.)-A special from Troy to the Journal, says: "Nine negroes are in the Troy jail on suspicion of the murder of Road Superintendent Fox Owens, Tuesday night. It is said that some three weeks ago Mr. Owens was passing along the Orion road and saw a negro farmer injuring the ditch. He commanded that it be stopped, whereupon the negro replied insolently and raised his hoe to fight.

"Owens started to draw his pistol and the negro dropped the hoe, which Owens seized, striking the negro a severe blow on the head. It is said that this negro belongs to secret orders, and he has been arrested on suspicion of the crime.

"The negro, who was arrested and placed in fall here, denies the crime, but it is believed that he knows something He is a mulatto negro, about 33 years of age, named Eph Brown.

"Eight other negroes were also arrested this afternoon. They are Mike and Early Smith, Lida Lawson, Lee McGoraby and of which were tiptoed, of no less than four persons leading up near the store; also a place where the assassin pulled off his shoes and then slipped to the store to commit the awful crime.

From the New York Evening World.

Herrman Schmidt, a boss plumber, has won the honor of being the champion beefsteak eater of the Theodore Schoeppler club, one of the oldest social organizations of the Bronx. He ate sixteen and a half pounds, and called for ganizations of the Bronx. He ate six-teen and a half pounds, and called for more, but there wasn't any more, and he determined to let it go at that, de-clining the club's offer to send out and bring it another hind quarter.

Louis Langfield has held the championship for seventeen years. It was be-lieved that he could out-eat any man in the community.

Previous to this year Mr. Schmidt's ap petite has not been good. He could eat twelve or fifteen pounds of steak and cause thirty or forty bottles of best imported to disappear, but he couldn't strike a championship gait. Last night when the club members as-Steel company; Hinto E. Carr vs. Lot sembled at No. 614 East One Hundred and trim. Charles Ruger made a good start, and came in second, with twelve pounds to his credit, while Frederick Scanaufer house and the round with an alacrity that took the nerve out of his opponents. He won a $250 wager on the feast, be sides his excellent dinner. Mr. Langfield was not heard from in the contest.

"I never felt quite so well before," said
